

External director of Iberdrola Energía Sostenible España, S.L.U.

He holds a degree in Forestry Engineering from the Polytechnic University of Madrid and a diploma in Planning and Land Management from the Higher Technical School of Civil Engineering, Universidad Politécnica de Madrid. He is an official within the Grade of Forestry Engineer of the National Institute for the Conservation of Nature (ICONA) of the Ministry of Agriculture.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE FOR PERFORMING HIS DUTIES

Javier Galán has extensive experience in the Public Sector: he has been Subdelegate of the Government in Salamanca, between 2012 and 2016; he has held positions of responsibility in the Provincial Services of ICONA in Zamora and Salamanca, in the Territorial Environmental Department of the Regional Government of Castilla and León and the Territorial Environmental Department of Salamanca. He has been Associate Professor at the Faculty of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences of the University of Salamanca, and has written and executed more than three hundred projects on hydrological-forestry restoration, river bank restoration and torrent control, forestry infrastructure and other environmental issues. He is member of the Provincial Committee of Historical and Artistic Heritage of Salamanca. Formerly, he was independent director of Iberdrola Renovables Energía, S.A.U.

